

The graph shows the temperature of a substance as it is heated. The temperature starts at a room temperature, rises to 380°C, plateaus, then rises to 100°C, plateaus, then rises to 160°C, plateaus, and finally rises to 140°C. The plateaus correspond to phase changes.

FIG. 3A

09960744-0944

FIG. 3B

